AMUSEMENTS.

It would be difficult to paint a darker picture than is presented in "Maria Rosa," played by Florence Roberts last evening in the Salt Lake theatre. Maria Rosa's husband is falsely accused of murder and dies in prison of a broken heart. The little murderer marries the widow. In a drunken frenzy on his wedding night, he confesses all and is stabbed to death with a carving knife by his outraged wife, just as the curtain goes down.

It is not a pretty play. It had a depressing influence on the audience that filled the theatre. It deals throughout with the lower strata of life in Spain. The lead is being built through the mountains and all the characters are drawn from among the laboring classes. The work is a guilty conscience, a strong-willed and love-crazed semi-savage are well portrayed. Mr. Bergen handles the part well, and it is a role that requires good handling in order to be effective.

Miss Roberts does not appear at her best as "Maria Rosa." This is not the fault of the actress so much as it is of the part itself. It is too gloomy and heavy.

On the whole the company appears to better advantage. Florence Robinson and Jay Williams as Quirico and Tomaso, the quarrelling man and wife, are really good. Charles Kent makes an exceptionally good Hunch. The minor parts were well cared for.

"Maria Rosa" will be presented again this evening. It will draw a good house because Miss Roberts appears to Salt Lake theatregoers.

The company which surrounds McIntyre and Heath in Klaw & Erlanger's production of the musical vaudeville, "The Ham Pies," which is to be presented at this city at an early date, numbers nearly 30 chorists. There are twenty-three speaking parts in the relation of the story and a great chorus of forty young girls and twenty young men who possess remarkable ability as singers and dancers.

The management of the Orpheum announces the following bill for next week: Jolly Fairy Rice and her dancing dolls; C. Nugent company, presenting an entertaining comedy; Claude and Fanny Usher, in a little heart drama, "Tough Love"; Mlle. Drilla and her dancers; Charles Serra, in his original gymnastic act, "On the White Column"; Joe Whitehead and the Misses Grierson, in some artistic fooling, and the kindred. The Four Lukens are the hit of the bill this week.

Starting this evening John A. Wolfe and company will perform for three nights, in Mark P. Swan's interesting drama of hypnotism, entitled "A Man of Mystery," at the Grand.

Commencing Wednesday, and until sold, our complete stock 25c on the dollar.
